4. Have you dreamed about taking a month or two off to write your novel? Can you envision a comfortable "AUTHOR'S RETREAT" in San Diego, CA where you are provided 2 meals a day, nourishing snacks, (whole grains, and organic fruits and veggies) and fresh linens, with laundry facilities right outside your door on your own private deck? There's nothing you need to do except relax, enjoy the creative process, and write your thoughts.

My husband and I are a nurturing author/publisher team who enjoy offering our clean, restful home to other writers. Much less expensive than a hotel, you will have your own tastefully furnished 1 bedroom apartment, (half of our duplex home) with a lovely fenced yard, where you can enjoy solitude, privacy, and freedom from responsibilities. We delight in providing for your needs so you can write your book. Your well-behaved pet is also welcome.

We will pick you up at the airport and see to it that whatever you require is handled, allowing you to totally focus on accomplishing your goals.

Cost is $4200 a month. Editing, special diets, and other requests are available for an additional fee.

--Sheila (San Diego) 619 287-3151.

D. ParaReviews

REVIEWS SELL BOOKS. Reviews make a book stand out. We can help each other by posting (five star) reviews at Amazon.com, B&N.com and other web sites.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO REVIEW BOOKS in your area of interest/expertise, contact the listing publisher directly with your Postal address. Do not send your request to Para Publishing. Please award the book at least four stars or decline to review it. A review with fewer stars is harmful to sales. The book you receive is yours to keep.

IF YOU WANT YOUR BOOK REVIEWED on Amazon.com, B&N.com, etc, list it here in Publishing Poynters Marketplace (no charge). You must be willing to send a book and promotional materials (review-book package) to readers of Publishing Poynters Marketplace who contact you. Make sure the book is already listed at Amazon.com.

Just send your request and description to DanPoynter@ParaPublishing.com. Draft your request so that I do not have to edit it. Make it SHORT (100 words max), no italics or bold type. Just describe the book in a few words; don't send a lengthy review of it. Lengthy submissions will be returned for rewriting or ruthlessly cut. Reviewers only need enough information to see if they have expertise and an interest in your category. Supply full contact information including your email address. Write the draft as it should appear so that I do not have to do more than Copy\Paste. Put "Review Wanted" in the subject line.

OFFERED FOR REVIEW:

1. PURPOSE TAKES GUTS! HARNESSING THE POWER OF PURPOSE FOR MORE ENERGY, FOCUS, AND RESULTS

Written by Bob Garvey, this book makes the strategic argument that purpose and meaning in one's work is not a "nice to have" but an essential "need to have" in today's competitive business environment. Garvey argues, cajoles, and sometimes even begs the reader to understand the vital importance of creating purpose in one's work, resulting in more focus, energy, and results, then provides a detailed plan on how to achieve it.

For a complimentary copy for review, contact Bob at BobGarvey@PurposefulGoalSetting.com

2. ZEUS: THE AVENGER

Rick Champion, a successful African-American entrepreneur, is enraged by the MLK assassination and vows to find and destroy those responsible. During his relentless thirty-year quest for revenge, Rick penetrates the inner sanctums of one of two American power elites bent on world domination. Is Rick able to overcome the powerful cabal's devious attacks that threaten to destroy him, his company and all he cherishes? Can Rick use his expertise in astrology to fulfill his vow and overcome the devastating attacks? And like the vengeful Greek god, Zeus, does Rick's dark side override his virtues?

3. DOGS: HEART-WARMING, SOUL-STIRRING STORIES OF OUR CANINE COMPANIONS, by John Cali, a new book for dog lovers. Discover these, and many other, wonderfully warm true dog stories:

The miniature schnauzer who returned from the dead to protect his family, the Labrador who saved her mistress from the fangs of a venomous copperhead snake by taking the bite herself, the sheep dog who kept a faithful five-year vigil for his dead master, the Scottish terrier who sees ghosts.

These dogs will bring you joy and tears, inspiring and uplifting you with their antics, comedy, and love for humans. In this dark world, dogs light up the darkness with their love and courage, offering us a reason to rejoice and feel good -- a reason to celebrate life, and the lives of all creatures great and small.

6. STOLEN FIELDS: A Story of Eminent Domain and the Death of the American Dream by Jean Boggio, published by Colerith Press. ISBN: 978-0-9799330-4-2 336 Pages

This book tells the author's story as a descendant of the last holdouts against the government's seizure by eminent domain of the prosperous asparagus farms on Neville Island, the market basket of Pittsburgh, at the time of WWI. The plan was to build a munitions factory but the was ended. The winner was Carnegie Steel, The losers were the farmers. The event shadowed the lives of the author's mother's generation and her own. The loss of the family farm grew other things as well: hatred, bitterness, greed and lust. The story ends in hope for the future as fortunes rise again.

Maria is a ten year old girl who disobeys her parents and causes trouble for others. She can't concentrate at school and decides to skip in spite of fearing her father's wrath.

--Trudy Sauri, tlsauri@yahoo.com

14. "I AM THEREFORE I AM" is more than the phrase that Oprah and Eckhart Tolle are "using" in their web-seminars. Over 6 years ago Lawrence Doochin began receiving revelations including the title of his book. "I Am Therefore I Am: Finding God in Our Heart": Lawrence's book synthesizes "Conversations with God" with "The Course in Miracles", and may advance our concept of spirituality more than either a "New Earth" or "The Moses Code". Lawrence says, "A number of prosperity books have been written in the last few years, and it is important to know that thought is creative and this is how the Universe works. Those books were important steps on the path to God, but our path is an evolutionary process. We are meant to go further, and we must go further...While we will manifest peace and kindness, we are here for remembrance, and our Beloved calls to us, every moment of every day. Everything that happens to us, even the smallest of encounters, is meant to bring us back to that remembrance of our Oneness with God and His Love. 15. WHAT IF YOUR DOG SAID SOMETHING IMPORTANT AND YOU DIDN'T UNDERSTAND IT? "My Doggie Says... Messages from Jamie" is a fun and humorous collection of color photographs and stories that can help you "listen" to your dog's messages and have a more nurturing and meaningful relationship with it. A dog's actions speak louder than words. "My Doggie Says... has won four awards for its warm and loving approach to doggie communication. Get the flavor at HYPERLINK "http://www.mydoggiesays.com" www.mydoggiesays.com. Contact: Fred M. Haney by e-mail: fredvmc@earthlink.net.

16. MODELS, MYTHS and MUDDLES spells out a human emergency. Wars, global warming and other ecosystem failures, overpopulation, and depletion of basic resources--all threaten continued existence of our own species--yet human response to this multiple crisis is muted and fragmented. Our collective thinking processes seem mired in ancient habits of blame, oversimplification, escapism, jumping to conclusions, and many others that are analyzed here.

Among the answers are critical thinking and species consciousness. Two more books will follow in this series "Thinking Toward Survival."

--Coralie Koonce, livanlern2002@yahoo.com, modelsmyths_muddles@yahoo.com

17. THE ENDLESS STRING IS A HUMOROUS COLLECTION OF CHILDRENS POETRY written and illustrated by Tom and Tess Hannah. It is a book for children 4 to 12 years of age but will entertain adults as well. These poems deal with some of lifes big problems like finding 2 socks that match or making your peas disappear without mom noticing. A number of what if poems add to the fun -what if you pulled on the endless string. A book to entertain the child in each of us. A book written by the parents of 4 children.

Tom and Tess Hannah authors of The Endless String ISBN #978-1-4327-1610-3 - Available at Amazon.com. Poems for children and the people who read to them. An illustrated book of humorous poetry for children and adults.
tomhanah@yahoo.com

18. THE TWELFTH AGE, Volume III of The Third Verse Trilogy - This powerful culmination to a stunning visionary/metaphysical story entertains through extraordinary futuristic visions of transformations in human consciousness. The Twelfth Age follows the young lifetime of Tashami-roku. Ultimately her passion for uncovering mysteries about an ancient prophet named Stair will link the fate of her planet Zamora with that of its parallel planet Earth. The Twelfth Age can be read independently from the series, is laced with wisdom teachings, and offers expanded perspectives on our future. Visit www.bloomingrosepress.com. Contact: Lily G. Stephen, evolutions@snowcrest.net for an advance review copy.

19. Disregarded is an intimate account of workplace conflict, its causes and solutions. A team of teachers copes with an ambivalent boss and then a relentless dictator. The staff splits into three groups and conflicted relationships result. Early chapters alternate between school settings and a series of reflective retreats, helping the reader grasp the workplace milieu and a compelling alternative. When the retreats end, the author continues his quest to understand self and organization. At a Quaker community, solutions are discovered. Education, business, spiritual, sociological and psychological themes interweave throughout. Jack H. Bender, www.Inner-Work.com, jhbender@sbcglobal.net
